

+ Nurse Call & Emergency Response

Enhance quality of care, safety and efficiency with a customized monitoring solution from Direct Supply.

At Direct Supply, we understand that there's no "one size fits all" when it comes to nurse call and emergency response systems. That's why we work with you to design custom community solutions factoring in issues like community size, clinical processes, regulations, maintenance requirements and culture of care.

Trust our wide range of industry-leading wired and wireless solutions to deliver on your desired clinical and operational outcomes now and in the future. Our team of experts can show you how to save money and improve efficiencies through proper system design and integration capabilities.

Take advantage of all the benefits of a fully customized solution

Improved Outcomes

Our experts are well-versed in Senior Living needs and trends, and will deliver the solutions designed to meet the needs of your staff.

Time & Money Savings

Streamline your technology ecosystem and workflow management through systems integration, activity tracking, detailed event reporting, 2-way communication and more.

Unrivaled Product Selection

Only Direct Supply brings together the best products from the top national brands, giving you the most nurse call and emergency response options.

Valuable Service & Support

From equipment questions to replacement parts and resolving issues, you can rest easy with Direct Supply as your single source for any support need.

Get started with a FREE consultation – call 1-800-889-6504 for details!